

Silent Pictures

Modest Mouse, Fugazi, Bikini Kill, Blonde Redhead, and Shellac are just a few of the subjects in Pat Graham's visually stunning first book. Many of these photographs have shaped the iconography of underground rock over the past two decades. Pat Graham has been a photographer for eighteen years. His work has centered on musicians and has been used on dozens of records, as well as in every major music publication in Europe and the United States. His work is part of the permanent collection in the Experience Music Project in Seattle. He currently lives in London.
