

Help! There's A Teenager In My House: A Troubleshooting Guide For Parents

Are you overwhelmed by the messy rooms, mood swings and curfew wars that seem to be overtaking your house? This accessible, encouraging book addresses the most common areas of concern for parents of teenagers. Wayne Rice has compiled real questions from parents with practical, wise answers from a team of youth ministry experts including Mark DeVries, Duffy Robbins, Jim Green, Kendra Smiley, David Olshine, Tim Smith, Marv Penner and Dave Veerman. Their advice comes from years of experience working with youth and raising teenagers of their own. Their guidance will aid you in understanding your teen and give you confidence in balancing boundaries with freedom as you face issues such as: How should I respond when my teenager is disrespectful? When is it appropriate for teenagers to start dating? How can I help my teenager avoid negative friendships? Is my son's anger normal? You have one of the toughest and most important jobs out there. But with the insight and support offered here, you can endure--and even enjoy--the years with a teenager in your house. Real questions from parents like you. Real answers from youth ministry experts.
