

Carol Day - Max Kalman

This book presents Max Kalman, the thirty third story of the Carol Day comic strip, beginning on April 5, 1966 and concluding on July 2, 1966. It comprises strips #3043-3147. Max Kalman is a sequel to Jack Slingsby, Wrights Carol Day masterpiece, and it is another Carol Day story centered in the art world. A couple of years have gone by since Jack Slingsby, and Carol and Jack meet by chance on a flight to Paris, where Jack is going to visit his old mentor, a famous artist who makes Jack the heir to his estate. Jack and Carol rekindle their romance as they try to deal with the impact of Jacks inheritance. This presentation is scanned about half from original art and half from tearsheets. The book is designed and optimized for the Kindle App on iPad. It is best viewed on the iPad or on a Mac or Windows PC via Amazons Cloud reader, but it is certainly enjoyable on the Kindle.
