

Abide with Me

At the end of Just As I Am, Raymond Tyler, Jr., was beginning a relationship with Trent, a fraternity brother from his college days, while Nicole had found love with Jared, Raymonds buddy from Atlanta. As Abide with Me opens, Raymond and Trent are settled in Seattle, where Trents career as an architect has blossomed and Raymonds law practice is booming. All seems well. Then, late one night, Raymond gets a call from a United States Senator that threatens everything hes built. Raymond, facing a crisis of faith, travels to New York hoping for the support of his best friend, Jared, whos moved North after five years in Atlanta. His wife, Nicole, is performing in a revival of Dreamgirls, her lifelong fantasy at last coming true. Nicole is thrilled to return to the stage, but when things start to go wrong, her young and beautiful understudy, Yancey Elizabeth Braxton, steps into the spotlight a little too smoothly. And Nicole, far from achieving her dream, is suddenly forced to reevaluate her life and her marriage. Back, too, are the other beloved inhabitants of Harriss world: Raymonds family; the sexy and dangerous gray-eyed sportscaster and ex-football player, John Basil Henderson; and Peaches, the spirited owner of the Harlem shop Cuts n Cobblers and the mother of Raymonds late friend Kyle.
