

Stranger in a New World (From Berlin to Santiago: A Pilgrims Journey)

Stranger in a New World follows the journey of a young man on a quest for truth, a journey that ultimately leads him to walking Spains Camino de Santiago. Hello, my name is Adam, and this is the true story about a journey that changed my life. I have been debating different ways to tell it for the longest time. Finally, I realized the best thing to do was tell the truth. It was October, 2012 and after graduating college in New Jersey at the tender age of twenty-two, I headed to Zurich, Switzerland for a three month business project. The plan was to stay with my mother, who lives in Zurich, and work from October until December before heading back home to New York. Of course, plans change and so do we. After finishing work in December I spent two very special weeks with my sister in San Francisco, all the while contemplating my next move. Should I look for a job in Zurich or New York? was the inescapable question. Most of my friends at the time were either in New York entering the second year of their careers or in graduate school. Of course, my time away didnt come without consequences. I will spare you the details, but lets just say that time together is no match for distance apart. My heart was broken and I was a mess. Why am I telling you this? It is important to note that this entire journey was built on the foundation of love there would be no story to tell without it. I was a completely confused twenty-two year old with a broken heart, obsessed with finding purpose in a world full of empty opportunity. My journey took me from San Francisco to Berlin, Germany, where I lived alone for three months before embarking on the Camino de Santiago, a walking pilgrimage from Southern France across Spain. I walked thirty-six days on the Camino before heading back to New York. The memories, experiences, and lessons learned during my time in Berlin and my walk across Spain are etched into the fabric of who I am today. The search for Truth is a very personal quest, and for a long time I was uncomfortable sharing my story. Eventually I realized that protecting my truth from the world was playing small and helped no-one, not even me. It should be noted that I was very fortunate to have two valuable resources: a little money saved up and time. This is not a luxury afforded to everyone and I am very grateful for the opportunities that became available because of it. I am certainly no expert. I have experiences, not answers, and have found that the more I learn the less I understand. With that said, welcome to my world I hope you enjoy your stay.
