

Berlin: A historical travel report: Lets visit Berlin around 1900

A short visit to Berlin in 1900. Here you can read a travel report of an American, who visited Berlin in 1900 and who wrote down her impressions about the city. She visited Berlin 14 years before the outbreak of WWI and mentioned that there were lots of soldiers in the city. Together with the report there are a lot of postcard images and paintings that reflect the time of her visit. I would have liked to offer this booklet for 0.99 cents but because of the size of the pictures this is not possible. I hope you enjoy the short trip through Berlin in 1900.
