

Technology Patent Infringement Case Strategies: TruePosition Inc. v. Andrew Corporation

Written by a successful patent trial attorney, Technology Patent Infringement Case Strategies discusses overarching issues that face the patent owner that is accused of misconduct in a technological standards body in the context of a patent infringement trial. The book contains suggestions about how general principles of trial advocacy apply to the special case of standards related defenses to patent infringement, including a discussion of possible trial themes for the patentee. Technology Patent Infringement Case Strategies provides a quick and easy read for any patentee that expects to present its patent infringement case to a jury where the case involves allegations of standards related misconduct. About the Author Paul B. Milcetic is a litigation partner in the Philadelphia office of Woodcock Washburn LLP where he is co-chair of the firm's pro bono committee. He was the lead trial lawyer in TruePosition Inc. v. Andrew Corporation, which resulted in a $45.3 million jury verdict in favor of his client, TruePosition (post-trial motions are pending). Paul is admitted to practice law in various jurisdictions, is a registered patent attorney, and has authored various articles in the area of patents and patent litigation. He holds a J.D. from Cornell Law School, an LLM in Trial Advocacy from the Temple University School of Law and a B.A. in Computer Science, summa cum laude, from Rutgers University.
