

Die-Cut Vs. G-Force #2 December 1993

An intergalactic war between advanced scientific forces to which Earth is a backwater planet-and likely target. One figure in the midst of the war is Die-Cut, a one-time intelligent, reasoning scientist who has become a psychotic assassin with scythes on his arms, and a goal of exterminating all artificial life in the universe. Another combatant is G-Force, a man whose suit can manipulate gravity, and who took a job for the evil organization MyS-TECH for one reason: to destroy it from within. Although their goals against technology are similar, their paths bring them into battle. Will they join to fight the common evil before its too late?
