

Don Brown: Yoko

YOKO
DON BROWN

Reduced to half or three-quarter scale and rendered nude in pure white, Browns wife Yoko is an eerily childlike muse. Entwined with a fictional twin and juxtaposed with dialogue like Take your knickers off, shes Lolita all the way. These 20 sculptures appear interspersed with short texts from artists, critics, collectors, curators and friends, among them Stefan Kalmar, Gregor Muir, Richard Prince, Norman Rosenthal and Rudolf Sagmeister.
