

Goya (Eyewitness Art)

This volume in the Eyewitness Art series follows Goyas life story and artistic development, from his training in tapestry design to his influential mature works. The way in which the artist develops over a period of time is revealed visually through colour artworks, annotated photographs of paintings, people, ephemera and materials, all integrated with the text. Together the pictures and words provide insights into this Spanish artists life and times, and the people, movements and events that influenced his work.
