With fun tips on how to decorate the dinner table with headstone place settings, creating cool window designs, paper bats, and much more, it is chock full of scary ideas. Kids learn to prepare their own jack-o-lanterns from scratch-starting with planting a pumpkin patch, growing the perfect pumpkin, carving the right designs, and toasting the seeds for snacks. Haunting on a Halloween encourages children to come up with their own ideas for decorations and activities, and includes Bright Ideas sidebars that offer alternatives to the activities or to potentially hazardous situations, like using disposable glow sticks instead of candles in a jack-o-lantern. This book is also great for grown-ups who want to help their children to have a safe, yet happy, Halloween. Linda White is the author of Sleeping in a Sack, Cooking on a Stick, and Trekking on a Trail. She lives in Loveland, Colorado.
