

Getting in Shape for Viola

Getting in Shape for Viola, combines warm-up exercises with lively pieces at a second-year playing level. Each exercise and song is included as version A for lower level players and as version B for higher level players. Both version A and version B can be played together, allowing students of different levels to play and learn together in the same class. The book can be used as part of a string class, in conjunction with Getting in Shape for Violin, Getting in Shape for Cello, and Getting in Shape for Bass.
