

Tribute Videos for Love and Money

Clap, Clap, Clap! or Ka-ching, Ka-ching, Ka-ching! Or both. Earn applause, tears, cheers, and even an income making videos that celebrate lives and events, with Tribute Videos for Love and Money by celebrated video producer Brien Lee. Family videos and Corporate videos often feature Tributes, life histories of significant people in our lives. The tributes may be used at weddings, retirements, anniversaries, birthdays, Bar Mitzvahs, memorials, and other significant events. More of us now have desire and the tools to produce such videos. But what makes a good Tribute Video? Award-winning video producer Brien Lee has been producing tribute videos from the beginning of his 40-year career, starting with slide shows for retiring professors and moving on to celebrations of family members and corporate leaders. Mixing his successes in personal video storytelling with the tools he knows from his major corporate and commercial video productions, he now offers you the tips, techniques and tools to produce the emotional, heartfelt, applause-making, laughter-evoking and tear-rendering videos that make memories and move audiences. Tribute Videos is chock full of storytelling advice, involving all of the tools of great video, from audio, to using pictures, to shooting, and even how to set up the theater for maximum effect. Of particular importance is the sections devoted to storytelling-- planning, outlining, structuring and telling your story is words, pictures, motion and emotion. You'll learn how to structure your video, get materials, use music, do interviews, ingest pictures and video, and mix it into a structured montage of crowd-pleasing, honoree-humbling, career-advancing, business jump-starting, self-satisfying goodness. In addition to the book itself, readers are welcomed to the authors website featuring video tutorials, podcasts, articles and reviews.
