Maiko or apprentice of Geiko is the occupation of dancing, playing musical instruments or more at banquets to entertain, typified in historical capital Kyoto. Okudosan means a kitchen in Kyoto dialect, originally Kudo means a cooking stove. In this photo album, Jun Kikai, a photographer native of Kyoto, took photos with an image that actual Maiko Fukutomo stands in a kitchen in Kyoto. Please enjoy lovely Maiko Fukutomo and traditional kitchen in Kyoto. This photo album, with 40 photos, fixes all photos at horizontal position in order to show them bigger. Please keep your devices at horizontal position.
