

Mary Anne - 8th Pocket Cardinal Printing (A dramatic novel about a fabulous woman who shocked a country and ruined a king)

FROM BACK COVER: In charming, corrupt Regency London, Mary Anne Clarke had beauty, brains and wit. And poverty.... So she entered an exacting profession. Spurred on by the demands of a drunken husband, a wastrel brother and four children, she rose to the top. Mary Anne Clarke became the mistress of a royal duke. But for her greedy family she needed a fortune - and she got it the wrong way. The scandal rocked England from palace to Parliament. A cockney wench was selling commissions in the Army! When the tumult died a duke was in disgrace, a whole army was disorganized, and a courtesan was the most famous woman in England.
