

Loser Takes All (Vintage Classics)

Bertram was not a believer in luck or superstitions. An unambitious assistant accountant, his plans for his second marriage are typically quiet: St Lukes, Maida Hill, then two weeks in Bournemouth. But then he comes to the attention of Dreuther, the director of Bertrams company, who changes Bertrams plans for him: wedding and honeymoon in Monte Carlo, on board his private yacht. Inevitably Bertram visits the casino and inevitably he loses. But then his system starts working, and his trouble really begins-
