

Lost Restaurants of Louisville (American Palate)

Louisville was home to fine cuisine long before the famous restaurant rows on Bardstown Road, Frankfort Avenue and East Market Street. Mazzonis served the areas first rolled oyster. At the C-54 Grill, guests dined inside a remodeled aircraft, and Kaelins prepared its classic cheeseburger. Hasenours sauerbraten and Hoe Kows war sui gai are two dishes that still make local mouths water when mentioned. Authors Stephen Hacker and Michelle Turner revisit the vivid personalities, celebrated spaces and unique recipes that made Louisvilles historic eateries unforgettable.
