

Moonchasers and other stories

When two teenage boys befriend and escaped bank robber--because the robber reminds the boys of their idol, Robert Mitchum--the boys set in motion a chilling chain of events that will teach them about trust, brutality, and courage. Moonchasers and Other Stories also contains several other riveting tales of suspense by Ed Gorman including Turn Away, which won a Shamus Award for best detective story. This outstanding collection of fiction is by an author who has been described by the San Diego Tribune as one of the most distinctive voices in today's crime fiction.
