

Lotion Making: A Beginners DIY Guide to Organic Homemade Lotion Recipes for Nourishing & Healthy Skin (Homemade Sunscreen, Body Butter, Non Greasy and ... Lotions) (Simply Homemade Books Book 1)

Lotion Making: 23 Organic Homemade Lotion Recipes for Nourishing and Healthy Skin: A beginners guide for those who want to learn how to make homemade lotion Having flawless skin doesnt only require going to a shop and buying body butters, moisturizers, or lotions that are rich with a lot of different chemicals. Flawless skin can be the result of a simple homemade project that involves only a few ingredients that are supposed to be mixed up in order to get the final result your very own body lotion. Some of the benefits of homemade lotions that are mentioned in this book are: They have no chemicals They are good for allergy prone people They are more persisting Homemade lotions are cheaper Homemade lotions can help you earn money because nowadays homemade products are also in high demand. With homemade lotions you basically spend a little bit of money, yet you are able to earn a lot more. This book also differentiates body lotions, creams, and butters. If you thought it was the same thing said in three different ways, well you are wrong, and here you are able to read all about their differences. One of the most common doubts about making homemade lotions is its complexity level. However, making your own lotion is easier than you think. Its a simple process that usually includes these ingredients: Cocoa butter easily available. It is not greasy, but has a hard consistency and makes the skin smooth and soft. Shea butter affordable, and it is available in almost every store. It is extracted from the nuts of the Shea tree that originated in Africa. Beeswax it is an emulsifier that is needed for making all lotions, creams, and butters. They are available in every store and not expensive. Coconut oil is the most common ingredient in our list. It has a lot of different health benefits and its usage in the cosmetics industry is massive. Honey has an important role in making lotions. After all, honey is one of the healthiest substances and completely organic. Glycerin preserves the moisture and leads to smoothness of the skin. Also, it heals cracked skin (on hands, lips, elbows). Essential oils they can be purchased in every store. Also, they are cheap but also personalize your lotion. While making your own body butter or lotion, you are able to choose whatever essential oil you want. Rose water can be used to replace water while making lotions. This is also available in stores and is not expensive. The truth is, body lotions can be made out of ingredients that are found in almost every store. Learn how to make body lotions, butters, and creams. Also, get informed about making your own homemade fragranced body lotion and sunscreen. Save money and protect your skin in the best possible way.
