

Postcards From Pelican: 100 Subjects In One Box

A collection of 100 postcards, each featuring a different jacket from Pelican Books, Penguins iconic non-fiction series. Covering subjects from socialism to sex, psychoanalysis to atomic physics, and written by great thinkers ranging from Sigmund Freud to Martin Luther King, Pelican brought accessible, intelligent books to a generation, making knowledge everybodys property. In 1936 Allen Lane, the founder of Penguin, overheard a woman at a Kings Cross Station bookstall asking for one of those Pelican books. She meant Penguin, but Lane, concerned a rival might snatch up the name, decided to launch a new range of non-fiction books. Pelican was born. Allen Lane said he believed in the existence in this country of a vast reading public for intelligent books at a low price, and staked everything on it. The gamble paid off. Customers queued in the streets for the first Pelican, George Bernard Shaws The Intelligent Womans Guide to Socialism, which sold a million copies in six weeks. In the years to come Pelican Books - including H. G. Wellss A Short History of the World, Freuds Psychopathology of Everyday Life and J. K. Galbraiths The Affluent Society, as well as guides to everything from jazz to witchcraft, guerrilla warfare to smashing atoms - would educate a generation. They became, in Lanes words, the true everymans library for the twentieth century.
