

The Seven Pomegranate Seeds (Oberon Modern Plays)

With the story of a lost child resonating throughout, these seven contemporary monologues for female speakers are loosely based on seven of Euripides most famous female characters; Medea, Phedra, Demeter, Persephone, Hypsipyle, Creusa and Alcestis. While individually they explore classical mother and child stories they come together in a compelling conclusion. Originally commissioned by the Onassis Programme at Oxford University where they were first performed by triple Olivier award-winner, Clare Higgins.
