

Penniless in Jerusalem

Many people want to visit Jerusalem and indeed, many manage to do so. When people arrive as tourists, they rarely get the chance to see life at the grassroots level. These stories are a peek into everyday life, as seen by locals. Miriam Woelke has been living in Jerusalem for the past fifteen years and was once part of Ultra-Orthodox society. She remains in close contact with the Ultra-Orthodox community and writes about Chassidic life. She maintains blogs in English and German:
