

Stephenson Plays: 1: A Memory of Water; Five Kinds of Silence; An Experiment with an Air Pump; Ancient Lights (Contemporary Dramatists) (v. 1)

The first collection of plays by one of Britain's most acclaimed contemporary playwrights - "one of the most promising dramatic prospects of the new millennium" (Daily Telegraph) The collection includes the The Memory Of Water in which three sisters meet on the evening after their mothers funeral and fight out old troubles with one another. Five Kinds Of Silence is a terrifying portrayal of a family for whom rules, duties and punishments are the driving force. In An Experiment With An Air Pump in a world of scientific chaos, cloning and genetic engineering, the cellar of a house yields up the secrets of the scientific discoveries of 1799. In Ancient Lights, Hollywood stars come home to the hills of Northumberland. The Memory of Water: "combines a flair for witty dialogue with a relish for the dynamics of theatre...a mistress of comic anguish" Guardian Five Kinds of Silence: "this quietly eloquent play" Independent An Experiment With An Air Pump: "teeming with interest, humour, eloquence and, above all, ideas...its not often we see a new play with this much energy, variety and intelligence" Independent Ancient Lights: "a cracking, grown-up play...with a light touch that cuts surprisingly deep" Daily Telegraph
