

Essays About Street Performing (or Busking)

This book is a collection of stories, tips and resources about busking aka street performing. A veteran with 30+ years of busking under her belt, and a rare solo woman performer, who writes political satire, Anderberg provides a unique glimpse into the world of busking from the inside out. Articles include How to Interact with Buskers, Women Street Performers and Sexual Safety, Using Buildings and Awnings as Microphones, Take Back Your Entertainment, Tips Street Performers Remember, How to Pick a Street Performer Spot, Selling Out as a Street Performer, What Motivates Women Buskers, I Wish Everyone Passed the Hat for Their Pay, Free Speech Costs Money at Seattles Pike Place Market, Street Performer Family Tree. Author Kirsten Anderberg has been a busker since 1978 and has lived the life of a street performer since her teens. Performing as Mother Zosima, a satiric nun, since 1989, Anderberg has provided shoot-from-the-hip lyrics and acrobatic vocals to delighted audiences for decades. The author earned her BA Degree from the University of WA in Political Science, her MA Degree from CA State University Northridge in History and Archiving. She has also done graduate level work in Instructional/Graphic Design and Law.
