

THE SEWING BEE BY THE SEA (Cottages, Cakes & Crafts series Book 2)

The Sewing Bee by the Sea is a light-hearted romance set in Scotland. Sewing, knitting and papercraft projects are available from the books accompanying website. (Also see her new paperback book FLOWER HUNTER COLOURING BOOK, a colouring-in book for grown-ups. Available now in paperback). The Sewing Bee By The Sea is a new book for 2015. First published February 2015. It is a 35,000 word romance. Its the second book in the new Cottages, Cakes & Crafts series of books. Book 1 - The Flower Hunters Cottage. Book 2 - The Sewing Bee by the Sea. Book 3 - The Beemasters Cottage. These books are part of a new series for 2015. Although each book is a complete story, the books should be read in numerical order (starting with book 1 - The Flower Hunters Cottage) to enjoy the full experience. The storylines and characters intertwine, highlighting different aspects of the people who live in the cottages in the beautiful little Scottish Highland community by the sea. Story: Tیره moves from the city to a beautiful cottage in the Scottish Highlands to begin work as the dressmakers apprentice. While helping the dressmaker make dresses that have been ordered for a Hollywood premiere, she meets some of the local men. Tavion the flower grower proves to be a handsome distraction, as does Bredon the beemaster and the silversmith. Tیره also sets up a sewing bee in her cottage by the sea. The ladies of the sewing bee get up to all sorts of mischief when they get together. The Sewing Bee by the Sea is filled with sewing, knitting, fashion, home baking, gossip and romance. About the Author: De-ann Black is a bestselling author, traditionally published for over 15 years, with more than 50 books published. She's also a scriptwriter and former newspaper journalist. She worked as marketing editor for a glossy magazine, helped organise fashion shows and photo-shoots, trained for many years in martial arts, and was a full-time newspaper journalist. De-ann loves to sew, knit and is also a fabric designer and artist. And she loves to bake cakes.
