

The Story of Guernsey: The Island and Its People

A short but authoritative history of Guernsey, in the Channel Islands. This is the ideal book for tourists, school children or those wanting an accessible introduction to the Island. From prehistoric dolmens to a unique Roman shipwreck, witch-burnings to naval heroes, Nazi occupation to dairy cattle, the book embraces the 10,000-year story of the Island. Fully illustrated in colour, with black and white historical photographs from the collections of Guernsey Museums.
