

The Skys the Limit: A Defense of the Earth

Landscape photographs accompany an essay on the beauty of our planet and what can be done to save it from possible destruction. In the tradition of Thoreau, Edward Abbey, and Annie Dillard, The Skys the Limit is an environmental manifesto, with 68 lyrical photographs of an untouched mesa near the authors home in Taos, New Mexico. A provocative essay on the fate of our planet complements these full-color images.
