

Travels to Jerusalem, Vol. 2 of 2: And the Holy Land, Through Egypt (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Travels to Jerusalem, Vol. 2 of 2: And the Holy Land, Through Egypt
I was employed for some hours in noting down with pencil my remarks on the places which I had just visited; a practice which I followed during the whole of my residence at Jerusalem, running about all day, and writing at night. Very early in the morning of the 7th of October, the procurator entered my apartment, and informed me how matters stood between the pacha and the superior. We concerted our measures accordingly.
