

The Good, The Bad, The Weird: Must-See-To-Believe-It Movies

Forget about movies like The Godfather, Blade Runner and other well-known classics because we've selected different kind of movies. Movies so unbelievable that they are just hilarious. The Good, The Bad, The Weird: Must-See-To-Believe-It Movies is a collection of 50 essays. Each one of them is a mixture of love, analysis, and history with selections range widely across genres, periods, and nationalities, and from not so high achievements in film art to some wildly successful popular flicks. From camp classics like Flash Gordon and Showgirls, Filipino cult movies with Weng Weng (the shortest action star ever), and even trash Ex-Yugoslavia sci-fi Visitors directed by a once Oscar winner, this book gives a different view of cinema and explores some lesser known movies and facts about them. The Good, The Bad, The Weird: Must-See-To-Believe-It Movies is a must read treasure for film lovers, a kind of different guide for viewers, and a book to return to again and again.
